Mrs. Reardon and Elizabeth Berry were brought up and accused of participating in a dance on the Sabbath day. The evidence was that the noise of the fiddles and the shouts of the soldiers, who were paying the defendants a Sunday call, reached the cars of the people in the vicinity to such an extent as to be a positive nuisance. The magistrate imposed a fine of $5.91 in each case, in default of payment of which they were sent to Queen's new country house for 30 days.

J. C. Bahler was accused of vagrancy. J. C. couldn't help it; but the fact was apparent that he was the mortal foe of fortune and of manual labor, and the world didn't sufficiently appreciate his genius, or it would place him above the necessity of a forced visit of thirty days to the poornouse. He found no friend to take him in, and feed and clothe him, so was constrained to go and board with Queen

John Casey didn't like to be fined; he belonged to Uncle Sam, and it wasn't dignified to fine him; besides, it was dignified for a soldier to get drunk "Pwis no use, however; and John was forced to pay a fine of $2.94.

Mr. Lewis Myers got drunk and went home to the wrong boarding house. He was sure it was a two-story brick; and "z'far ze cu-zee any two-story shie-tory" would do. However, his miscellancous ideas of boarding-houses were considerably "sot back" when he found himself kicked out of the wrong house, and the front door stammed in his face. when he found himself kicked out of the wrong house, and the front door stammed in his face. The magistrate, after a hearing of his case, finding himself somewhat confused as to the identity of the said boarding-house, and fearing the accused would be late for dinner, finally set-tled the question by sending him to board with Queen for a space of 90 days.

Before Justice McKenna.—During the last two months, a gang of young Zouaves, to the number of about fifty, residents of the Navy Yard, Capitol Hill, and the Island, have been in the habit of congregating at Carrol's Spring, where they have been the constant dread of those living in the neighborhood, by reason of the stone battles in which they have engaged, and the plentiful curses with which they have complimented each other. The battle-ground extended for some distance round, and the disgraceful exploits of these youngsters finally became absolutely unbearable. Stones were thrown through the windows of houses; the neighborhood became a scene of constant turmoil; and it was dangerous for females to pass along the streets. Finally, county officer J. H. Wise complained to Justice McKenna, who issued warrants against fifteen of the belligerents, which were placed in the hands of Policeman Nash, and with the assistance of Officer Wise, who identified the Before Justice McKenna .- During the last two placed in the hands of Policeman Nash, and with the assistance of Officer Wise, who identified the parties, they were all arrested and brought to trial. Numbers of witnesses living in the neighborhood of the riots, brought stones to the magistrate's office which had been thrown through their win-dows, in some cases doing great damage to furni-ture and endangering the inmates. The accused parties were severely lectured by the justice, and fined $3 and costs each.

Before Justice Clark.—Charles Edmonson was fined $5 and costs for placing obstructions in the James Young Henry was found drunk in the James Young Henry was found drunk in the streets and sent to the work-house 60 days.

Jabez Hall called on Mrs. Donnelly and ordered catables and drinkables to the amount of 62% cents, which he first disposed of, and then walked off without paying for. He then walked down the avenue and purchased a pint of roast chestnuts at a street stand, which he likewise forgot to remanerate the vender for. Mrs. Donnelly followed him and set an officer on his track, who soon overtook his customer and carried him before buttoo took his customer and carried him before Justice Clark, who committed him to the work-house for 60 days, in default of security and costs.

THE BARGY CASE .- Soon after the judgme was rendered in this case (of false pretences,) by Justice Donn, as we stated yesterday, Justice John H. Johnson offered to give bond with Ludim A. Bargy (or Bargie) in the sum of $1,000 for the appearance of the latter for trial at the Criminal Court. The bail was accepted and they gave bond in $500 each. Bargy appeared to be highly offended by the decision, and declared his highly offended by the decision, and declared his intention to bring Executive authority to bear upon the magistrate for daring to give judgment against him; and also to see the District Attorney and the grand jury in reference to the matter. The Justice told him that his official connection with the case was now ended, but if Mr. Bargy continued his disrespectful language he would send him to jail for contempt. Bargy also used some language of a threatening character towards capt. Carrington, counsel for the government, at gentleman, however, not being within earsebot at the moment. During the trial, a person approached Justice Donn with the message that if he would dismiss the case it would be the best day's work he are more than the content of the case it would be the best day's work he are more than the content of the case it would be the best day's work he are more than the case in the ca day's work he ever made!

CRICKET CLUBS .- Reports are daily reaching a from the Northern cities and foreign shores of the successful revival of the time-honored and healthful exercise of cricket, and we notice the advent for exercise of cricket, and we notice the advent of similar organizations in this city. For some weeks past we have observed a number of young men of Washington amusing themselves in this way on the "common" beyond the brick-kiln on Fourteenth street, near the northern boundary, but it was not until last evening that the participants met for the purpose of organizing themselves, when they selected the following officers: President, Walter Camp; Secretary, T. A. Brown; Treasurer, G. T. Bentley.

THE LEVY COURT, at its session on Monday last, passed several appropriations for repairs of roads and bridges within its jurisdiction. A sum of $250 was ordered to be expended in the repair of a large culvert in the north of the city, and slive for the repair of the road leading to Benning's bridge. A sum of $500, one-half of which must be provided by the Corporation of Georgetown, was appropriated for the restoration of the new road between High street, Georgetown, and the river road to the Little Fails of the Potoma.

HYMENIAL .- A highly interesting marriage ceremony took place this morning at 6 o'clock, at the Church of the Ascension, Rev. Dr. Pinkney officiating, the principals being Miss Annie M. Schall, eidest daughter of Wm. Schall, Esq., clerk in the Navy Department, and Mr. Augustas E. Merritt, late of Hartford, Com. The bride and groom were accompanied to the church by a numerous company of mutual friends. Upon the conclusion of the ceremony, the happy couple left the city in the cars for a six-weeks bridal trip to the North.

MR. MARTIN .- It was stated yesterday by a city paper that Mr. Martin had died of the wounds in flicted upon him by Adam Grinder. THE THEATRE.—The lovers of and hungerer after tragedy (we confess that we are not of the number, as we see enough of it in every day real life) must have enjoyed a rich treat last night, in life) must have enjoyed a rich treat last night, in the playfof the Gamester. If they do notablect to the play, they certainly cannot object to the natural and truthful manner in which Berry Sullivan performed the ruined husband, Mrs. Gladstane the injured wife, Lingham the accomplished villain, and Chaplin, Williams, and Dalton, the respective friends of the parties. The whole play was painfully well performed, and must have satisfied the most greedy appetite in that line. The bill for tonight consists of King Lear—Barry Sullivan as Lear and Mrs. Gladstane Cordelia—and the Artful Dodger, Mr. E. Lamb as Timothy Dodger.

"MERCURY" (of the Baltimore Sun) says that seven members of the Board of Aldermen suc-ceeded in defeating him as trustee, but thinks the community will congratulate him upon his relief from "heavy responsibility and toil," &c., &c. That's so!

That's so!

P.S. "Mercury" says: "Seven members of that body succeeded in rejecting three of the nominees." Oh, no, Mercury! The fact is, but one of the three rejected nominees had seven votes cast against him, and that was James Lawrenson—there were but five votes against Atl.ee and six against Stoughton. Mr. Stoughton received five votes, Mr. Atlee five, and Mr. L. only three.

F., propose to give a grand ball at their hall, at the Navy to give a grand ball at their hall, at the Navy Yard, on Thursday evening next, the proceeds to be devoted to furnishing the Lodge room. The hall will be tastefully decorated, plenty of refreshments will be at hand, and Prosperi's celebrated cotillon band will discourse the music on the occasion. The reputation of the Odd Fellows generally, and of the Navy Yarders in particular, for getting up affairs of this kind, is a sufficient guaranty that the ball will be the source of much pleasure to those who participate in it.

GYMNASTICS are invaluable in their way, but to fine a point may be put upon them. Thus at Chicago the other day, a man who was engaged in jumping, lifting and throwing, injured himself internally so severely that he shortly expired in great agony.

Oxygenated Bitters,

The annexed statement of Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D.,

State Assayer, is ample to timony of the scientific manner in which this medicine is compounded, and recommends it to Professional men.

An opinion having been asked for of me, in consequence of the formula for preparing Organical Editors being known to me, I express the following in form:

guence of the formula for preparing Orygennied Bitters being known to me, I express the following in form:

The composition of these Bitters includes those medicinal substances which experienced physicians have long resorted to for special action on the system, when deranged by Fevers, Dyspepsia, Aguos, and General Debility, resulting from exposure or climate influence.

These are rendered permanent, and remain active in this preparation, as a consequence of the scientific manner in which they are combined.

It was a well founded inference, that the preparation, used in larger or smaller doses, would prove a valuable General Medicine, which experience has demonstrated.

In this medicine, no metallic salts can be found; by the most delicate chemical trials.

Sandford's Liver invigorator.—Who that is troubled with any of those disagreeable complaints, such as Jamadice, Dyspepsia, or Liver diseases of any kind, but would like to know of a remedy for these unseemly visitations? We feel that we are doing our invalid readers an invaluable service if we can induce them to get a bottle of Dr. Sanford's invigorator, and take it, for we know from personal experience that it is one of the greatest remedies of general debility, and consequent inactive bodily powers, ever before each. Its action is so perfect and complete as to give relief the first time falken, and if it does so others as it has to us, half a bottle will be all that is needed. We know of nothing we recommend with such confidence, as a fa-cine, as the invigorator. oc $ 2 medicine, as the invigorator.

ALEXANDRIA. Correspondence of The Star.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Oct. 5, 1859.

ALEXAMORIA, Va., Oct. 5, 1859.

The County Court disposed of the following business yesterday: David Manly and Geo. Webster, charged with inflicting wounds with a knife upon the person of a negro named Robert Kennedy, in July last, were examined and held for trial to-day for misdemeanor, the Court not sustaining the original charge of felony against the prisoners. Robert Ballenger, charged with the offence of removing the coupling from the cars of the Alexandria and Washington Railroad while the train was in motion, was examined, and there not being sufficient evidence produced to sustain the charge he was dismissed. Adjourned until this morning at 11 o'clock.

The attendance of persons at the Theological Seminary yesterday to witness the dedication of Aspinwall Hall was very large, sincluding the following Episcopal Bishops:—Meade and Johns, of Virginia; Polk, of Louisiana; Hopkins, of Vermont; and Smith, of Kentucky; besides a number of ministers from different States. The Rt. Rev. Bishops Meade and Johns, and Dr. Bedell delivered interesting addresses suited to the occasion. Latham's new six-horse coach, "The Crystal Palace," was brought into service for the first time since its arrival from Baltimore, in conveying passengers to and from the Seminary, and its capacity was fairly tested, it having comfortably seated thirty-eight persons.

The following gentlemen were appointed by the Court school commissioners for this county for the current year:—B. H. Lambert, James Entwisle, S. H. Williams, W. D. Massey, and H. S. Wunder.

The play of Ingomar, at Price's Varieties last The play of Ingomar, at Price's Varieties last night, was well received by a large and fashionable audience—a greater number of ladies being present than has at any time graced the theatre. Miss Thompson sustained the character of Parthenia in a style unexceptionable, and, by her passionate and energetic acti g, won golden opinions from her audience. She walks and holds the stage admirably, and seems wonderfully devoid of that nervousness which characterizes young actresses. To-night she plays Paunine Deschappelles, in the comedy of the Lady of Lyons; and also that of Nan in the farce of Good for Nothing—a capital bill. Quite a number of our citizens will be present to-day at the tournament at Analostan Island.
